Junior Service League elects Board of Directors

GRAND JUNCTION — The Junior Service League of Grand Junction (JSL) has recently elected its 2006-07 Board of Directors.

Toni Milyard will serve as president, Synthia Polzine is vice president, Joan Graham is treasurer, Susan Eggert will serve as secretary with Pam Francil sitting on the board as past president.

Other members of the board include Kathy Malvern as the Membership Chairperson, Janet Brink heading up the Community Giving Committee, Education and Training Chairperson is Jody Brandon, Public Relations Chairperson is Amy Lusby, Cindy Neal will serve in Publications, Traeana Tripoli will chair the Special Events Committee, and Patti Chamberlain will head up the Sustainers Committee.

Also elected to the board are committee co-chairs. They include: Doris Walck, Janice Burtis and Dawn Litzinger for Walk 4 Life; Julie Butherus and Kristen Knecht heading up Viva el Vino; and Tonja Kueper and Gretchen Sodamann on the Cookbook Committee.

JSL is an organization of women committed to working together to improve the community through effective volunteerism and fundraising. Since its inception in 1985, the organization has given almost $600,000 to area nonprofit organizations.

The Board of Directors oversees the operations of the volunteerism and fundraising for the organization with their positions ending in May 2007. They recently attended a board retreat in Durango, Colo.
